ANNOUNCEMENTS

- We Welcome Visitors to St. John's! If you are new to the community or just visiting the neighborhood, you are invited to join us after the service for refreshments and conversation. If you would like to be get more information about St. John's or be in touch with the Rector, please fill out a visitor's card. They can be located in the seatbacks of most pews.
- Sunday School & Nursery Care: All children ages 4 to 12 are invited to attend classes taught downstairs by our dedicated teaching staff. There is also child care for infants and children up to 3 years of age. But just as Jesus welcomed the little ones, children of any age are welcome to sit with their parents in the sanctuary throughout worship services.
- Night Song at 7 p.m. This Evening! Night Song offers an hour of contemplative music and provides a setting for meditation, for comfort and strength, and for moments of clarity. The program this evening includes:
 - Instrumental Jazz, with the post-Easter return of pianist Ben Schwendener and Bbob Rhainey on soprano saxophone
 - Full Compline sung by "The Men of Nightsong", in a plainchant hymn setting adapted by Daryl Bichel
 - Motets, including In manus tuas II and Laudem dicite Deo by John Sheppard and Regina caeli laetare by Robert White
 - The hymn, Te lucis ante terminum
 - The Kyrie from Missa Aeterna Christi munera by Giovanni Pierluigi da PalestrinaFor more information, check out the Night Song website: www.nightsong.org.

- “Soldiers' Tales Untold” will be performed at St. John's on Thursday evening, May 7, at 7:30 p.m. "Soldier's Tales Untold" is a unique mix of narration, interactive theatre, improvised music, and classical music that seeks to engage diverse audiences in both contemplation and critical thinking. It is a musical examination of the impact of war on soldiers' lives and is a de-construction of the Igor Stravinsky 1918 classic, "L'Histoire du Soldat" (The Soldier's Tale). Selected scenes from "L'Histoire" are juxtaposed with, and interrupted by, actual commentary and reflections of 20th-century soldiers, set to improvised music. The piece is 45 minutes long with a 30-minute discussion period afterward. Please plan to attend, and tell your family and friends. We hope to have a good crowd and a thoughtful discussion afterwards. For more information, please contact Ken Brooks at ken.brooks@me.com, or view the video trailer on YouTube at <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=v5VGYaxpjrM>
- Angel Food Ministries at St. John's is now Live on the AFM website! May orders can now be placed online, picking St John's as the pickup location from the menu. Volunteers from St. John's will be collecting food directly from the regional AFM warehouse, processing orders, and distributing boxes. There are several practical issues that we need to address now to make AFM at St. John's a success:
 - ✓ We need to arrange a regular rental of a trailer (small U-haul) or a small truck (14 ft box truck) at a discounted rate each month for Angel Food pick-up and delivery. We need to shop for the best deal, so if anyone has contacts in this area, please contact Rob Watters.
 - ✓ We need to find boxes to use each month. We will require each person to bring a box, laundry basket or such for exchange but we will need some boxes to get us started. We probably need to start with 20-30 medium size boxes, like the size diapers come in from BJ's or Costco. If anyone has a line on boxes, please contact Rob.
 - ✓ We need volunteers for two different shifts: Starting with the May distribution, we will need at least 3 volunteers for a 5 am shift to take the truck out to Hudson, MA, pick up our orders and bring the food back to JP. We would have to meet in JP by 4 am. We also will need approx 10–12 volunteers in JP for the actual distribution of food boxes at St. Johns. This would mean at St. John's for 8 am to meet the truck, help unload it, and organize boxes for pick-up. The need for more volunteers may increase as the project grows. If you would like to volunteer, let Rob know.
 - ✓ A volunteer to take special orders once a month on a non-distribution Saturday at the church. We will be advertising that there will be set hours for placing orders in person for people who are not able to place orders online, or who are using food stamps.
 If you have ideas on any of these items, see Rob or send an email to AFM@stjohns-jp.org.
- Coffee Hour Rota: The second round of assignments covering the period from February 22 to June 21 has been published. Copies are available at the back of the church. Reminder: If you arrange to switch dates with someone else, please let Emily Engeland know at EMEngeland@msn.com so the bulletin acknowledges the correct individuals. The next round of assignments will be made in June, so if you are interested in signing up let Emily know. Thank you, everyone, for the wonderful Coffee Hour refreshments!
- An ounce of prevention: Don't leave anything valuable where it can be seen in your parked car outside the church. Over the winter, there were break-ins of some cars parked outside.

NOTES OF THANKS

- Thanks to Dorothy Derifield and Tom Ward who provided today's Coffee Hour refreshments.
- Thanks to Jim Ellis, Rob Watters and all the members of the St. John's community who helped out with the Parish Buildings & Grounds Workday and/or the distribution of Angel Food Ministries food boxes yesterday. For all the Saints, who from their labors rest (today, we hope)!
